

UFO caught on drone spitting in stationary CCTV eye. A country trapped inside the UK under six tons of chair. Not a no-win situation for a cool 200million, all beautiful years in joke. Evil is the in-thing now...adverse effects...lethal emergence. Full operational awareness capitalists want their cake after eating it and the poor keep paying that price. One god thinks he's all that, leaving you. The truest Stranger Danger, non-human agenda, who blink each lid separately, with no time delay, masquerading as the unconfessed spy, with spindly fingers in everything, slurping cream tea and Empire Biscuits, understood by any man or beast.
